Expression of Wish Form

Should a lump sum benefit become payable as a result of my death, the Trustee of the Scheme will determine to whom the benefit should be paid. I understand that generally the Trustee will follow my expression of wish as indicated below, but that in exceptional circumstances the Trustee may determine not to follow my wishes.

I can confirm that I wish the lump sum benefits payable on my death to be distributed as follows:

The Trustee of the Scheme are data controllers in respect of your personal data, for the purposes of data protection legislation. This expression of wish form asks you to provide information which the Trustee will use for the sole purpose of considering who may receive lump sum benefits in the event of your death. It is your responsibility to inform the named beneficiaries that their data may be processed in this manner.

Further information on how we handle personal information generally is set out in the Trustee privacy notice, a copy of which is available on request.
